DEWEY DAY PROGRAM.

Preparations for Celebration Complete—Magnificent Decorations and Many Visitors—Eloquent Speakers.

Sketch of the Hero of the Day.

How the Town Looks.

Dewey day in Santa Fe was ushered in with beautiful weather, which continued throughout the day. Early in the morning people from surrounding towns and ranches began pouring in, all manner of conveyances being used to transport the masses of people anxious to attend the historic celebration. The city was filled with the greatest naval victory the world has known.

The work of decorating business houses was continued with unabated zest all during the day and many of the results were surprisingly beautiful. Pictures of Dewey, Sampson and Schley were framed in wreaths of red, white and blue bunting and given conspicuous positions in windows. Flags of the United States and Cuba occupied every conceivable nook and corner forming an indelible combination of color and firing the hearts of all beholders with the fervor of liberty. The grand stand in front of the old palace was a vision of loveliness, and was a credit to the artistic taste of Decorator Rosenthal.

Chinese lanterns of all colors and shapes form the illumination effect for the night and are hung throughout the city in positions where their rays will light up the decorations viewed in day time.

The following is the program for this evening's celebration as finally determined:

Concert by 1st Regimental Band at 7 p. m.

Opening Address at 8 p. m. by Judge A. L. Morrison, Chairman.

"Star Spangled Banner" Chorus

Address by Hon. J. B. Catron "Battle Hymn of the Republic" Chorus

Address in Spanish, Hon. B. M. Reed "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" Chorus

Address by G. P. Money, Esq. "The Cry of Freedom" Chorus

Address in Spanish, Hon. O. A. Larraco of Las Vegas "America" Chorus

The ceremonies will close with a grand display of fireworks at the conclusion of the program.

The grand stand has been erected in front of the governor's palace and has been handsomely decorated.

The grand stand and platform are reserved for the speakers, for the choir, the vice presidents and representatives of the press. No other persons, adult or children, will be allowed on the platform.

Company B, 1st Infantry, N. M. N. G., and the students of St. Michael's College will attend the ceremonies.

Promptly on time at 4 o'clock Uncle Sam and Admiral Dewey with corps of marines arrived and were received by a vast concourse of people.

The gentlemen are capitalists from Philadelphia and will spend the summer in the territory prospecting and looking up mining investments. They are now interested in some properties in the southern part of the territory which they will resume operations on.

Warren Graham, a prominent business man of Cerrillos, drove in from that place today with a party, for the purpose of shaking hands with Uncle Sam on the Dewey victory. While here, Mr. Graham visited this office and showed his appreciation of the good things in this world by subscribing for the DAILY NEW MEXICAN.

ADmiral GEORGE DEWEY.

Among the well known and able officers of the United States navy, Admiral George Dewey is conspicuous. He had charge of the Asiatic squadron which now has headquarters at Hongkong. Rear Admiral Dewey has been in the navy since boyhood, is a graduate of Annapolis and has had much rough experience, having seen much severe service in the civil war. He is a stern, able, resolute officer and an accomplished gentleman. He was appointed to Annapolis from his native state, Vermont, in 1854. He graduated four years later. During the civil war he served on the frigate Mississippi at New Orleans, Port Hudson and Donaldson. In 1861 he was commissioned lieutenant commander, and in 1872 he received his commission as commander. In 1884 he was made captain and in 1889 a commodore. He is considered a reliable officer in an emergency.

He is now rear admiral in command of the Asiatic squadron and on Sunday May 1, 1898, commanded that squadron in its glorious victory in Manila bay.

MEMORIAL DAY IN LAS VEGAS.

Military Funeral of Private Irad Cochran, Troop E, 1st U. S. Volunteer Cavalry. To the Editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican. Las Vegas, N. M., May 31, 1898.—Memorial day of 1898, in Las Vegas, is one that will never be forgotten by those who witnessed it. The service was made most impressive by the funeral of the late Irad Cochran, late member of a troop of cavalry furnished by New Mexico in the present war.

The procession was headed by the Las Vegas military band of twenty-five pieces, followed by a carriage containing Governor Otero, Chief Justice Mills, Mayor Coors, of this city, and W. H. Pope, of Santa Fe, orator of the day. This carriage was escorted by the governor's staff in full dress uniform, consisting of Colonels Austin, Twitchell, Wigham and Tipton. Sherman post, G. A. R., followed, then Colonel Borradaile, Major Van Patton and Lieutenant Kelly, mounted, followed by the Otero Guards, fifty strong, under the command of Capt. W. C. Reid and Lieutenants Atkins and Ifield. They were followed by the Las Vegas cadets under the command of Colonel Alberger; the Junior Order of American Mechanics, commanded by Thos. Blauvelt; the Elks, commanded by F. M. Johnson; Odd Fellows, fire companies and other civic organizations. The parade formed on Railroad avenue, and all marched to the St. Paul's Episcopal church. Here the procession was joined by the funeral train of Irad Cochran, making the line of march fully a half mile in length, under the command of Major R. C. Rankin. The only unpleasant feature in this line was a severe wind storm, which lasted about twenty minutes. At the cemetery the burial was made with military honors. Governor Otero, Chief Justice Mills, W. H. Pope Esq., and Mayor Coors stood at the head of the grave and a squad of eight men from the National Guard stood at either side and fired a salute at the close of the ceremonies.

At the Hotels.

At the Claire: C. F. Malarkey, Portland, Ore.; J. L. Gayler and wife, Rodney Shay, Dulce; Dr. E. H. Mathers, Washington, D. C.; J. V. Demay, Columbus, O.; John T. Hawkes, Aurora, Ill.; P. Bailey, D. M. Barringer, Jr., Meredith Bailey, Jr., Philadelphia; H. L. Warren, Albuquerque.

At the Palace: J. C. Ottman, Ethel Thorp, Madrid; D. M. Beare, A. L. Mitchell, George Neff, Cerrillos; Arthur D. Finch and wife, F. L. Harrington, C. Greenwood, Bland; W. H. Sebastian, San Francisco; X. E. Burns, New York; E. M. Clark, Chicago; W. S. Ferguson, St. Louis; A. C. Appleby, Dallas, Tex.; G. W. MacArthur, Espanola.

MINOR CITY TOPICS.

MANTEROLA TO MADRID.

Another Spanish Account of Yesterday's Engagement Between Schley's and Cervera's Squadrons.

Madrid, June 1, 5 p. m.—The minister of marine on leaving the palace this afternoon after a visit to the queen said:

"The American squadron bombarded and tried to force the Santiago forts, which replied vigorously. The Cristobal Colon advanced to the mouth of the harbor, exchanging shots with the enemy, who fired 70 shots against the forts. The damage done is not reported. The Colon hit an auxiliary American ship, damaging it. The Colon was not hurt."

"The American squadron, commanded by Schley, composed of large iron clads and cruisers, attacked the fortifications at the entrance of Santiago. Our iron clad Cristobal Colon, closing the mouth of the port and supported by the fire from the forts, repulsed the attack, causing much damage to the enemy."
